FOR RELEASE

A group of 25 international museum leaders will visit Cleveland May 2 and 3. Their two-day stay in Cleveland begins with a welcome at The Cleveland Museum of Art where the visitors will meet representatives of the Art Museum, Health Museum, Historical Society, Art Institute, and the Museum of Natural History.

On May 2 a tea will be held for the Museum leaders at the Western Reserve Historical Society followed by dinner at Gwinn given by The Cleveland Museum of Art. Other activities include visits to various Museums throughout the city.

Members of the group are Museum officials from Australia, Canada, Czechoslovakia, Denmark, India, Israel, Japan, Holland, Nigeria, Norway, Sweden, and West Germany.

Given to Mr. Paul Metzler, Cleveland Plain Dealer, by telephone, April 28, 1961
